MY "CHOICE"? THE PROJECT OF GOD ON OF ME

The "stigmas" of the vocational identity

FIRST MOMENT: THE MEETING AMONG YOU AND YOUR GROUP

Read

A recognized time Jesus, the life of the two disciples is not more the same. It doesn't matter if is night, if they are afraid, if are from suns. Jesus is risen again and have to shout it to the they left companions to Jerusalem and to the whole world.

Think over

The image of the two disciples, that, a recognized time Jesus has not an instant of delay goes to Jerusalem we fills a strange joy, involving, new. Perhaps because it is a radical choice, that changes their existences for ever. It is a joy that perhaps rarely live today. We feel the heavy opportunity to think, much that not cost much identify with this " culture of the undecided ". In this "culture" we are absorbed till the neck.

The man of today, if was able, never would not choose.

We have taken the "freedom" to avoid every form of binding choice. " I marry you ", but I have to have the possibility of divorce, " do you remain pregnant ", however you are able fail when you want, " go at school ", but I am able allows me straight to beat the teacher without that punish me.

I am clear to do it...

But do we have the courage to call it indeed freedom, this freedom that, after all is only an incapability of made a stable choice?

The our two friends remember we that, among the different possibility of life, exists only one that makes me really happy.

The our two friends, meeting Jesus that is offered to them as broken bread, have understood that their life has sense only if even they make it a gift. So they leaves all and they start again Jerusalem. Have understood their vocation.

They are not a blind faith. To the contrary, it has an excellent sight. To follow really vocation doesn't want say to do a jump in the darkness. It means learns to meditate and to interpret the word of god

Then you will discover your vocation and will be happy. Before to this plans repeat your "amen". Every day of your life!
